

Women's Ministry Director: Position Profile

The role of the Women's Ministry Director is to provide leadership for the spiritual health and vitality of women at Covenant Church, primarily through Women's Community Groups. The right person for this job will have an active and evident faith in Jesus Christ and be deeply committed to Covenant's Mission, Vision, and Values.

Position Objectives:

The primary objectives of this role are to lead women to take their next step on their personal Discipleship Pathway and to develop women in the Leadership Pipeline. In addition, you would...

- Oversee all Women's Community Groups
- Facilitate some groups, with a primary goal of giving away leadership to developed and equipped women
- Effectively connect women to groups, whether Women's, Young Adult, Mixed, or Married Groups
- Collaborate with all staff so all women's initiatives are "in sync" with the vision and values of the church and the church calendar
- Other duties as necessary that pertain to adult ministry at Covenant Church

This position is part time at 20-25 hours/week. The Women's Ministry Director will attend Tuesday Staff Meetings 2x/month and be available at weekend worship services. The remainder of the weekly schedule will be determined in conjunction with the Adult Ministry Pastor, who supervises this position.

Qualifications and Competencies:

Member or willing to pursue membership at Covenant Church; able to teach with relevance and a focus on connection and transformation; good communicator with individuals and mid-sized groups; possess a sense of personal security in Christ that manifests as maturity, trustworthiness, humility, and passion; technologically competent; minimum of Bachelor's education.
